

Find Your PATH Fund Application

Purpose: The Find Your Path Fund was established to provide support to those seeking recovery from Substance Use Disorder through multiple pathways.

Who can apply for funding? (Requirements)

1. Anyone with 48 hours of continuous sobriety
2. Family/Loved One and Allies who have been impacted by substance use disorder either through active use or in recovery.

Application Process: The Find Your PATH Fund has a rolling application process. Applications can be submitted at any time during the year. Once an application is received the selection committee has 7 business days to notify the applicant of the decision.

How it works: Once an application has been approved the recipient will be awarded partial or full funding of their request in the form of gift card, direct payment to service provider, or physical item requested. In no circumstances, will direct monies be exchanged to the individual applying for funding.
